

Three wishes

Track:

1. What was the fisherman's problem?
A) He was too lazy. B) He didn't catch many fish.
C) His net was broken. D) He didn't like fishing.
2. Why was the fisherman's wife angry?
A) Because her husband was late. B) Because he caught a talking fish.
C) Because he didn't catch many fish. D) Because she wanted to go shopping.
3. What did the fish promise the fisherman?
A) Three wishes B) A treasure
C) A big meal D) Gold coins
4. What did the fisherman wish for first?
A) A new house B) Some gold
C) Sausages instead of bread and water D) A big fish
5. What appeared on the fisherman's plate?
A) Sausages B) Bread
C) Fish D) Gold
6. Why was the fisherman's wife angry about the first wish?
A) She didn't like sausages.
B) She wanted something better like money or gold.
C) She didn't want to eat.
D) She didn't believe the fish was magic.
7. What did the wife say she wished for?
A) That they had more wishes
B) That the sausages were on her husband's nose
C) That they were rich
D) That the fish came back

8. What happened after her wish?
- A) The man became rich.
 - B) The sausages were on the man's nose.
 - C) The fish returned.
 - D) The sausages disappeared.
9. What did they use their last wish for?
- A) To get the sausages off the man's nose
 - B) To have more food
 - C) To find the fish again
 - D) To buy a house
10. How did the story end?
- A) They had more wishes left.
 - B) They became rich and happy.
 - C) They had no sausages and no wishes.
 - D) The fish returned and helped them.