

Complete the sentences with the words (contemporary, patron, underlying, thought-provoking, affluent, versatile, conceal, convey, evolve, adequately)

1. He decided to look at the reasons for his fear of water in an attempt to overcome the fear.
2. He is a actor who can act, sing and dance.
3. He became after he inherited a large sum of money from his aunt.
4. She wrote a article about the effect of contemporary art on how people look at the world around them.
5. After winning a major prize, the artist thanked his for supporting him when he was unknown and struggled financially.
6. The actress did not want to be recognized on vacation and decided to her red hair under a wig.
7. He managed to from a selfish person to somebody who had sympathy for people in need.
8. Mime artists a message using only gestures and facial expressions.
9. Her art is and reflects issues that confront people today.
10. She sings, but not well enough to become a professional.