Task 3: Read and write the correct answers.

Last Saturday afternoon, I visited my grandparents in the countryside. While I was walking to their house, the sun was shining, but suddenly it started to rain. I didn't have an umbrella, so I got wet and ran quickly. When I arrived, my grandmother was cooking dinner in the kitchen and my grandfather was watching a football match on TV. They were happy to see me. We had a delicious meal together, and then we sat in the living room, talked about school, and played some card games until it got dark.
