
Transportation in San Miguelito: Our Daily Journey

"Welcome to our class! Imagine it's a busy Monday morning in San Miguelito. Everyone is trying to get to work or school. Our community is very big, so we need different types of transport. Think about the streets near your house. How do people travel?

Many years ago, the only public transport was the streetcar or the colorful 'chiva' buses. Their journey was often slow, but their decorations were beautiful! Now, we have modern transport like the Metro and the Metro Bus system. Its trains are fast and clean. My mother always takes the Metro to work, and my father usually takes a Metro Bus. We rarely take an old 'chiva' or Diablo Rojo anymore. Today, we'll learn more about these fascinating ways to move around!"

Complete the sentences using the correct possessive adjective and an appropriate adverb of frequency to reflect how often the transport is used in San Miguelito today.
