The Lost Necklace

One sunny morning, Anna was walking to school when she noticed something shiny on the ground. She picked it up and realized it was a beautiful silver necklace. Curious, she looked around, but no one seemed to be searching for it.

She decided to take it to the school's lost and found.

At school, Anna couldn't stop thinking about the necklace. During lunch, her friend Mia said she had lost her grandmother's necklace that morning. Anna quickly took the necklace from her bag and showed it to Mia. Mia's eyes lit up with joy. "That's it! Thank you so much, Anna!" she said.

Anna smiled, happy to have helped her friend. From that day on, they became even closer friends.
