

Blooket | Question Set

Feature Articles (+ concept vocabulary)

Name _____

Date _____

Class _____

1. Vocabulary: "talk in a critical way that seems unfair"

- | | |
|--------------|------------|
| a) reading | b) lecture |
| c) criticize | d) lesson |

2. Vocabulary: "storing sounds in a form, such as a digital file, so that they can be heard again in the future"

3. Vocabulary: " people who study how languages work"

4. Feature Articles: brief personal stories that illustrate a point

5. Vocabulary: "word or expression that has a specific meaning"

- | | |
|------------|--------------|
| a) subject | b) technique |
| c) term | d) lingua |

6. Vocabulary: "speaking words correctly"

7. They are brief personal stories that illustrate a point

- | | |
|---------------|--------------|
| a) statistics | b) lectures |
| c) facts | d) anecdotes |

8. In a feature article, it's the author's point of view.

9. What kind of textual evidence is?: As of 2016, an estimated 12 million people have played disc golf in the United States.

- a) statistics b) facts
c) examples d) anecdotes

10. They are statements that can be proved true (like a definition or concepts)

11. What kind of textual evidence is this?: In disc golf, players throw Frisbee-like discs into baskets.

- a) examples b) facts
c) statistics d) terms

12. They are numerical data gained from research or surveys

13. What kind of textual evidence is this?: Disc golf courses will soon be everywhere. For example, Texas currently has 652 courses and more on the way.

14. They are specific instances of a general idea

- a) facts b) statistics
c) anecdotes d) examples

15. Vocabulary: able to speak or write with ease

- a) enunciate b) bilingual
c) fluent d) term

16. It is a longer work of journalism that reports information in an in-depth way.

- a) newspaper b) personal narrative
c) feature article d) journal

17. Explicit textual evidence that prove the author's central ideas:

- a) information b) body paragraphs
c) leads d) supporting details

18. "Fluency" and "Eloquent" are words related to:

- a) linguists
- b) term
- c) fluent
- d) pronounce

19. What kind of textual evidence is this?: I met my neighbor yesterday, and I was glad I had studied Spanish in school so that I could greet him.

- a) examples
- b) anecdotes
- c) facts
- d) statistics

20. "Archive" and "Report" are words related to

21. "Enunciate" and "Pronunciation" are words related to:

- a) Language
- b) Lecture
- c) Term
- d) Pronounce

22. "Vocable" and "Denomination" are words related to:

23. "Scolding" and "Teach" are words related to:

- a) Linguist
- b) Lecture
- c) Pronounce
- d) Record

24. What kind of textual evidence is this?: There are 486 million native Spanish speakers worldwide.

- a) examples
- b) facts
- c) statistics
- d) anecdotes

25. What kind of textual evidence is this?: Spanish is the official language of many countries, including Mexico, Cuba, El Salvador, and Spain.

- a) examples
- b) facts
- c) anecdotes
- d) statistics