The Case of the Missing Necklace

It was a sunny Saturday when Emily and Jake decided to visit their friend Lucy. They wanted to visit her either Sunday or Monday, but Lucy said that she had swimming lessons. Lucy had a beautiful necklace. She always wore it. However, Lucy was very upset today. "My necklace is missing!" she cried. "We can help you find it," said Jake.

They started finding the house. First, they looked in Lucy's bedroom. They looked under the bed and in the drawers, but there was no necklace. Next, they checked the living room. They looked behind the sofa and under the pillows, but still no luck.

Suddenly, Emily had an idea. "What if you lost it outside?" she gave an idea. Lucy, Jake and Emily ran to the garden. They looked in the flowers and near the see-saw. They must find the missing necklace.

They looked at the grass and flowers but could not find anything. Finally, Jake spotted something under the big tree. "Look!" he shouted. It was Lucy's necklace! Lucy was so happy. "Thank you, Emily and Jake!" she said with a smile. The friends were very happy that day.
