PHẦN III: ĐỌC HIỂU (Reading Comprehension)

V. Đọc đoạn văn sau và trả lời các câu hỏi.

Air pollution is a serious problem in many modern cities. It is often caused by smoke from factories and motor vehicles. This pollution can cause breathing problems and other health issues for people. Many people, especially children and the elderly, suffer from asthma and bronchitis because of the poor air quality. To deal with this problem, citizens should be encouraged to use public transportation like buses and trains instead of motorbikes or cars. Governments should also introduce cleaner energy sources and strict laws to control industrial emissions. We all need to take responsibility for keeping our air clean.
