

LISTENING

4A 5.02 | Listen to a radio programme on how to complain effectively. Choose the three pieces of advice (a–f) that are mentioned.

- a Think about exactly what it is you're unhappy about before you make a complaint.
- b Don't complain about something that can't be changed.
- c Keep repeating what the problem is until you're offered a solution.
- d Be polite and friendly when you're making a complaint.
- e If the person you're talking to can't help you, ask to speak to someone else.
- f Use social media to complain instead of sending an email.

B 5.02 | Listen again and number the words in the order you hear them.

- a key
- b perspective
- c mutter
- d ramble
- e outcome
- f embarrassed

To the ticket office,

I _____ about the terrible service I received on a recent journey.

I reserved a seat for my journey, but when I got on the train, I saw that the same seat had been given to another passenger. I asked a member of staff to help me find another seat but ² _____. The train was full, so I had to stand for the first four hours.

³ _____, I had planned to buy lunch on the train as usual. However, on the day I travelled, the café was closed and there was no food available to buy.

Finally, the train was dirty. ⁴ _____ there was rubbish everywhere and the toilets had not been cleaned.

My recent experience was ⁵ _____ and I feel that ⁶ _____ of the cost of my train ticket would be a fair compensation for my unpleasant experience.

I look forward to hearing your reply.

Regards,

Sharon May

B Are the sentences about letters of complaint True (T) or False (F)? Use the letter in Ex 5A to help you answer.

- 1 You should say why you are writing.
- 2 You should give lots of detailed information about the problem.
- 3 You should describe your feelings.
- 4 You should say what action you would like the company to take.
- 5 The letter should be written in an informal style.
- 6 You should avoid using contractions.

6A Think about a time you've had a bad experience (for example, at a restaurant or at a hotel). Make notes about the problem and the result you want.

B You're going to write a complaint email. Before you start, think about the following points.

- information to include
- the order of the information
- phrases you can use to complain

C Write an email complaining about the experience in 140–180 words.
