

EVALUACIÓN

LEE EL TEXTO CON ATENCIÓN Y GRABA TUS RESPUESTAS
EN EL MICRÓFONO

The Stomach Ache

Mathias was crying. His mother ran to his room. "What's wrong?" she asked.

"My stomach hurts a lot!" he said.

His mother sat on his bed. "Mathias, had you often had a stomach ache before?" she asked.

"No," he cried. "I had rarely felt this bad."

She thought for a moment. "Had you already eaten your vegetables for dinner?"

Mathias looked down. "No... I had never finished them."

"Had you just eaten the chocolate cake from the kitchen?" his mother asked softly.

Mathias nodded slowly. "Yes. I had just eaten a big piece."

His mother understood. "You see? Your stomach had never digested so much sugar so fast. That's why it hurts."

She gave him some medicine and a hug. Mathias promised, "I have always listened to you, but today I didn't. I will always finish my vegetables first from now on".

PREGUNTAS

1. Had Mathias often had a stomach ache before?

2. What had he never finished?

3. What had he just eaten?

4. What had his stomach never done before?