

My quiz Proficiency: Unit 2 Listening Speaking Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Complete the sentences with the words (exorbitantly, upcoming, recruit, opt, expand, unwise, nutshell, assume, superfluous, notion) and make any necessary changes.

1. It is to spend money on luxuries when you do not have food at home.
2. She really enjoys singing, but when it started to take up all of her spare time, she decided to out of it.
3. The newspaper always prints a list of events on a Monday to give its readers enough time to plan for the week ahead.
4. Our manager earns an high salary given his poor performance.
5. Poor people often that money makes you happy, but rich people say that this is not always the case.
6. The journalist is very good at expressing long speeches in a
7. The club needs new members; we shall have to go on a drive to more people.
8. She decided to get rid of all her kitchen appliances - such as three kettles - and donated them to a charity.
9. His of hard work differs completely from mine; I think he is lazy.
10. The hotel decided to its services by adding a swimming pool, which has attracted many new guests.