Proofreading

The following speech has nine mistakes. Use the proofreading marks to correct them. Then, write the misspelled list words correctly on the lines.

I envyed my brother's baseball-card collection until I started my own stamp collection. My uncle, who lives in london and travels a lot, is always supplyng me with interesting stamps on the letters he sends. I have classyified my stamps by country. I can usually peel a stamp off the envelope without tearing it. For the stickyest ones, though, i cut the envelope around the stamp. with a magnifing lens, I can see designs within the pictures on the stamps. I like to learn about each of the people or symbols on stamps. I find my collection occupying a lot of my free time, but it's lots of fun.
