

Arrange/Trace the following the significant events from the oldest to the most recent happenings the led to the development of modern periodic table.

_____ Law of Octaves by Newlands

_____ Arrangement of 28 elements into 6 families with similar chemical and physical traits by Meyer.

_____ Moseley demonstrated that properties of an element are determined by the atomic number.

_____ The elements were arranged in rows and columns and left blank spaces for elements to be discovered (Mendeleev)

_____ Law of Triads by Dobereiner