BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1148. Their team is always prepared to adapt and change, never just _____.

A. chasing rainbows B. waiting for a storm in a teacup

C. waiting for fair weather D. blowing hot and cold

1149. The unexpected news _____the entire office.

A. took the wind out of the sails of B. made hay while the sun shone

C. blew hot and cold D. rained on someone's parade

1150. He didn't want to talk about the issue, so he just _____.

A. chased rainbows B. took the wind out of someone's sails

C. added fuel to the fire D. stormed off

1151. I heard a rumor about the layoffs, but I didn't believe it until I _____.

A. made hay B. got wind of it C. saw the light D. broke the ice

1152. She is always late, but today she was here early. That's really _____!

A. under a cloud B. the calm before the storm

C. raining on my parade D. stealing thunder

1153. After a long day at work, I just need some time to _____.

A. rain on someone's parade B. break the ice

C. cool down D. chase rainbows

1154. The boss praised our colleague, which _____.

A. took the wind out of my sails B. threw caution to the wind

C. rained on my parade D. broke the ice

1155. The argument started small, but it soon _____.

A. added fuel to the fire B. took the wind out of my sails

C. threw caution to the wind D. cooled down

1156. It's better to have everything prepared now, so you don't get caught _____later.

A. weathering the storm B. under the weather C. in the cold D. on thin ice 1157. We didn't see the problem at first, but now it's clear as _____.

A. ice B. day C. rain D. cloud

1158. They had a fight, but it was nothing serious—just a _____.

A. storm in a teacup B. cold shoulder C. cloud over D. rain check 1159. It seemed like an easy task, but I was _____when I tried to finish it.

A. weathering the storm B. blown away C. snowed under D. chasing rainbows

1160. The politician was caught in a scandal and has been _____ever since.

A. blowing hot and cold B. under a cloud

C. raining on someone's parade D. weathering the storm

1161. We were hoping for good news, but instead, they _____.

A. broke the ice B. made hay C. rained on our parade D. took the plunge

1162. If you don't want to do the work, you're just _____.

A. breaking the ice B. waiting for fair weather

C. snowed under D. chasing rainbows

LIVEWORKSHEETS