

Wrong Uniform

Last week was the first day I late to school. I had never come late to school before.

I was staying up late until 2 am which was very unusual for me. I my alarm to 5 am. I at 7 am and I hear my alarm rang. It turned out that my alarm was broken. I to bathroom and changed to my school uniform. I to my school. When I arrived, my friends at me because I wore wrong uniform. How I was! I was for being late.

After school I two new alarms to prevent this happen again.
