

Name:

Date:

Subject: Creative Writing

Instructions:

1. Read the story carefully.
2. Think about the different parts of a story
3. Fill in the story plot diagram below with the Exposition, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action and Resolution

Story Sample: “Fire on Lime Boulevard Street”

In a cozy little house on Lime Boulevard Street, there lived a brave and quick-thinking boy named Kelon. He loved playing with his best friend, Anthony, who lived next door.

One day, a fire suddenly broke out in Antony’s house, and he was trapped inside. Kelon saw the flames and knew he had to act fast. Without hesitation, Kelon rushed into the burning house, navigating his way through the smoke-filled rooms to find Anthony. He finally spotted him in his bedroom near the window, coughing and shielding his eyes from the smoke.

Kelon carefully guided Anthony out of the house, protecting him from the heat and debris. They emerged outside, gasping for air, as the fire department arrived to put out the flames. Anthony was safe, and Kelon was commended for his courage by the Fire Officers. They hugged each other tightly, relieved and grateful for their friendship.

Plot Diagram

