

I _____ (study) English for almost six years now, and during this time I _____ (discover) how interesting learning a language can be. My teachers _____ (help) me a lot, especially with speaking and pronunciation.

Since the beginning of high school, I _____ (read) many English books and _____ (watch) dozens of movies in English. This _____ (improve) my vocabulary and listening skills.

However, I still _____ (not master) grammar completely. For example, I sometimes forget the difference between past simple and present perfect. My classmates and I _____ (talk) about this many times, but it still confuses us!

Recently, our teacher _____ (give) us some online exercises, and I _____ (already / try) a few of them. They are very useful because we can check our answers immediately.

Learning English _____ (be) a wonderful journey so far, and I'm sure it _____ (help) me in the future when I travel or work abroad.