Go shopping in Greenford, UK

Are you planning a visit to Greenford? The city is small but there are many places to go shopping.

The Arts and Crafts Market

Every Sunday morning, there's an arts and crafts market. Are you looking for a special present for a friend or family member? Well, all the crafts on these stalls are unique – there's nothing else like them! The people at the stalls make everything by hand.

The Hilldale Shopping Centre

Everything you need under one roof! There are electronics shops, clothes shops, sports shops and much much more. There's a great food court on the top floor and a children's play area on the ground floor. You can spend many hours shopping here!

The Old Town

Greenford has got a beautiful old town. While you're shopping, you can enjoy the old buildings. Some are over 500 years old! There are hobby shops, toy shops and bookshops here for you to explore. There are some amazing cafés and restaurants, too. Have a coffee and watch the world go by.

So, what are you waiting for? Jump on a train, buy a bus ticket or drive your car to Greenford today! The shopping is great! For more information, go to the website: www.visitgreenford.oup.com
