

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE REVIEW

Exercise 1: Present Perfect Practice

Complete the sentences using the Present Perfect form of the verbs in parentheses. Use affirmative, negative, or question forms as needed.

Example: I _____ (finish) my homework, so now I can watch TV.
I have finished my homework, so now I can watch TV.

- a. She _____ (see) that movie three times because she really loves romantic stories.
- b. _____ you _____ (eat) sushi before, or is it your first time trying Japanese food?
- c. They _____ (travel) to Spain twice this year to visit their grandparents in Madrid.
- d. I _____ (do) my project yet, so I can't send it to the teacher today.
- e. He _____ (be) very busy lately because he has started a new job in the city.
- f. We _____ (buy) a new computer since the old one stopped working last month.
- g. My parents _____ (live) in this town for twenty years, and they know almost everyone here.
- h. She _____ (lose) her keys again, and now she can't open the door to her apartment.
- i. _____ you _____ (read) the new Harry Potter book that came out last month?
- j. The class _____ (start) already, so please go inside quietly.

Exercise 2: Using Present Perfect with Time Expressions

Rewrite each sentence by adding the word in parentheses (already, just, yet, ever, never, since, for) in the correct place.

Example: I have finished my homework. (already)
I have already finished my homework.

- a. She has arrived home. (just) _____
- b. I haven't seen that movie. (yet) _____
- c. They have visited Paris. (ever) _____
- d. He has been to the United States. (never) _____
- e. We have lived in this city. (since) _____
- f. My brother has studied English. (for) _____
- g. The teacher has checked our tests. (already) _____

Exercise 3: Simple Past or Present Perfect?

Complete each sentence with the correct form of the two verbs in parentheses. Use the Simple Past or the Present Perfect depending on the context and time expressions. Each sentence has two blanks — one for each verb.

- a. I _____ (visit) many cities in Italy, but I _____ (never / go) to Rome.
- b. She _____ (finish) her project two hours ago, but she _____ (not send) it to the teacher yet.
- c. We _____ (live) in this neighborhood since 2015, but we _____ (move) here from another city.
- d. My parents _____ (travel) to Argentina last summer, and they _____ (enjoy) the trip a lot.
- e. He _____ (lose) his wallet last night, but he _____ (find) it this morning under the sofa.
- f. _____ you ever _____ (meet) the new English teacher, or _____ you _____ (talk) to her online only?
- g. They _____ (go) to the supermarket an hour ago because they _____ (forget) to buy milk.
- h. I _____ (not see) my best friend for a long time, but we _____ (send) messages almost every day.
- i. The movie _____ (start) at 8 p.m., and we _____ (arrive) late because of the traffic.
- j. My sister _____ (buy) that book many times for her friends, and she _____ (read) it herself twice.

Exercise 4: A Holiday to Remember

Read the story about Emma's vacation. Complete the 10 blanks with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses. Use Simple Past or Present Perfect tense. You may use affirmative, negative, or question forms as needed.

A Holiday to Remember

Last summer, Emma finally went on the vacation she _____ (plan) for months. She _____ (travel) to Italy with her best friend, and they were both very _____ excited. Before they _____ (leave), Emma realized she _____ (forget) her camera at home, so she had to use her phone instead. When they _____ (arrive) in Rome, they _____ (be) surprised by how beautiful the city looked in real life. They _____ (visit) many famous places, including the Colosseum and the Vatican. However, one morning, Emma _____ (lose) her wallet at a café near their hotel. Luckily, a kind man _____ (find) it and returned it to her. By the end of the trip, they _____ (buy) many souvenirs and _____ (see) some of the most wonderful sunsets of their lives.