

A SECRET LETTER

Imagine you are Mary Holder (Mr. Holder's niece). Write a short secret letter (about 8-10 sentences) to your uncle after the truth is discovered.

Explain your feelings – why you helped Sir George Burnwell, what you regret, and what you plan to do now.

A cartoon illustration of a girl with dark hair and a pink face, looking up and to the left. She is wearing a dark blue top. The background is white with horizontal dashed lines, suggesting a notebook or a writing area.