

Unit 1: Skeletons

1. Write the names of the bones.

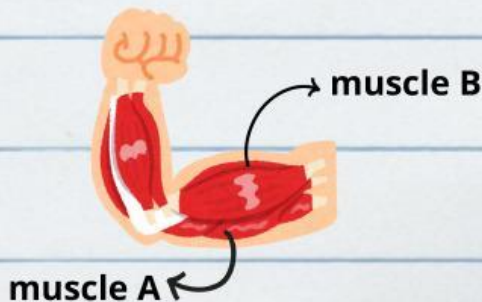

2. Complete the sentences about skeletons.

invertebrate shape move exoskeleton bones shape protect

- Skeletons are made of _____
- Skeletons help us to _____ our body.
- Skeletons give us a _____.
- Skeletons _____ our organs.
- Animals that don't have bones are called _____
- _____ animals do not have bones.
- Invertebrates can have an _____ to protect them.

3. Look at the muscles and answer.

Muscles work in When one muscle, the other relaxes. The muscle that contracts pulls on the, making it move.

In the picture, muscle A is relaxing and muscle B is

4. Classify the animals into vertebrate or invertebrate.

vertebrates	invertebrates

worm
cat
rabbit
elephant
butterfly
zebra
scorpion
fish