

SUBJECT vs OBJECT

PRONOUNS

Read the paragraphs and choose the correct pronoun in each sentence.

A Day at the Office

Last Monday, my boss Liam invited I / me to a meeting early in the morning. He / him wanted to share some ideas about a new project. When we / us arrived, his wife and the other members were already discussing the plan. During the meeting, she / her asked I / me to take some notes and send they / them to she / her later that day. It / they was an important task, so I / me worked carefully. After the meeting, he / him thanked we / us for our help and congratulated I / me on my organization skills.

A Weekend with Friends

Last weekend, my family and I decided to go camping in the mountains. I / me invited my best friends Leah and Tom to come with we / us. When we / us arrived, they / them seemed concerned. The weather surprised they / them because it was sunny. They / Them had just packed winter clothes. I / me helped she / her set up the tents while he / him started a fire. At night, we / us told stories, and they / them laughed a lot. The trip was amazing, and we / us promised they / them to plan another adventure soon.

