

The Seven Wonders of the Modern World

- B. On 7th July, 2007 (07-07-07), a list of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World was made public at a ceremony held in Lisbon, Portugal. The list was put together after a massive online and SMS campaign in which more than 10 crore votes were cast worldwide.

Complete the names of these wonders using the Help Line.

1. It is the world's longest man-made structure, stretching about 6,240 kilometres. It is a series of stone and earthen fortifications.

The Great _____, China

2. It was an ancient city of the Inca civilisation. It was built around 1450 CE but was abandoned less than 100 years later due to the outbreak of smallpox.

Machu _____, Peru

3. It was an amphitheatre capable of seating around 50,000 spectators. People came here to watch gory games involving gladiators, wild animals and prisoners.

The _____, Rome

4. This 125-foot tall statue is located at the peak of the 700-metre high Corcovado mountain.

Christ the _____, Brazil

5. It is an ancient city famous for its stone structures such as a 138-foot tall temple carved into rose colour rock.

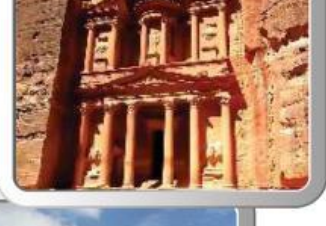

The _____, Jordan

6. It is the mausoleum built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal. Ustad Isa Khan of Persia (Iran) is often credited as its chief designer.

The _____, India

7. It is a large archeological site which contains many fine stone buildings. It was built during the Maya civilisation between 600 CE and 800 CE.

The _____ itza, Mexico.

HELP
LINE

Petra, Taj Mahal, Redeemer, Wall, Picchu, Chichen, Colosseum