My friend Ben and I just returned from a trip to Kyoto.

We were so <sup>1</sup>   to see this beautiful city, and we weren't <sup>2</sup>  . I'm <sup>3</sup>   in architecture, so I wanted to see the traditional buildings. There are also many beautiful gardens, and the use of fountains and other water features has a <sup>4</sup>   effect—you can't feel <sup>5</sup>   with the calming sound of water. We were very <sup>6</sup>   at the end of the day because we walked so much. Fortunately, our hotel was nearby.
