Reading Part 3

Read the text about an unusual house in America and decide if each sentence (1–8) is correct or incorrect.

THE PYRAMID HOUSE

Harry Wilkes, an American businessman, has built an unusual home in Ohio. The only part you can see is a giant blue pyramid-shaped window. The rest of the house is underground. The home is huge. It's around 2,000m² with a 760m² living room that has enough space for about 80 guests. Of course, without a window above ground, the home would have little sunlight. The pyramid catches the maximum amount of natural light and softly lights up the rooms below.

The decoration of the room is as impressive as the design. Wilkes had been a keen collector of historic works of art before he even thought about building his home. Consequently, the house is filled with ancient things from Rome, Egypt and Greece.

The world of art doesn't stop in Wilkes' home. His house is on top of a hill that's surrounded by forests and fields, and all around dotted across the countryside, are huge steel, bronze, and wooden sculptures. This is because The Pyramid House is in the middle of Pyramid Hill Sculpture Park and Museum. When the billionaire businessman first decided to build his home, he fell in love with the beauty of the area and bought a lot of the surrounding land. Not knowing at first what to do with it, Harry decided to turn it into a sculpture park.

More than 100,000 people visit the park each year to enjoy the art and the scenery; others go to conferences, concerts, weddings, and festivals there. Although Harry's house isn't open to the public, he has suggested that when he dies, it will become part of the sculpture park so that people will be able to see the personal and impressive museum collection inside.

- 1 None of Harry Wilkes' house can be seen above ground.
- 2 Harry's house has plenty of room for entertaining people.
- 3 Harry's house is quite dark inside.
- 4 Harry has recently become interested in ancient history.
- 5 There are giant works of art just outside Harry's home.
- 6 The sculpture park existed before Harry built his house.
- 7 It's possible to listen to music at the sculpture park.
- 8 Visitors today are able to see Harry's own art collection.
