

Worksheet: Types of Employment

Grade: 10

Topic: Types of Employment

Source: TrueIn Blog

Name

Surname

Part 1 Pre-Class Study

Before completing this worksheet, please study the following resource to gain a foundational understanding of the topic:

Article: TrueIn Blog

Part 2 Worksheet tasks

Note: This worksheet is designed to test students' understanding of different types of employment while engaging them with varied question formats.

Task 1: Open-Ended Question

1. Explain the difference between full-time and part-time employment. Provide examples of industries where each type is common.
Your answer should be 3-4 sentences long.

Task 2: Short Answer

2. What is the primary characteristic of contract employment?
3. Name two advantages of freelancing.

Task 3: Drag and Drop (Fill in the Blanks)

Note: For Task 3 (Drag and Drop), if the worksheet is digital, the words can be dragged into the blanks. If it's on paper, students can write the correct words in the spaces provided

4. Complete the sentences by dragging the correct words into the blanks:
- In _____ employment, workers are hired for a specific period or project.
 - _____ employment offers flexibility but lacks job security.
 - _____ workers are often employed during peak seasons or for temporary needs.

Words to choose from: freelance, temporary, contract

Task 4: Matching

5. Match the type of employment with its description:

Type of Employment	Description
A. Full-time	1. Workers are hired for a specific task or duration.
B. Part-time	2. Employees work fewer hours than full-time staff.
C. Freelance	3. Workers are self-employed and take on multiple clients.
D. Contract	4. Employees work a standard number of hours per week.

Answer format: A-4, B-2, etc.

Task 5: Choose the Correct Word/Phrase

6. Select the correct word/phrase to complete the sentence:
- _____ workers are often hired to cover maternity leaves or seasonal demands.
 - a) Freelance
 - b) Temporary
 - c) Full-time
 - d) Contract
7. _____ employment typically includes benefits like health insurance and paid leave.
- a) Part-time
 - b) Freelance
 - c) Full-time
 - d) Temporary
-

Task 6: Multiple Choice (Single or Multiple Answers)

8. Which of the following are characteristics of freelancing? (Choose all that apply.)
- a) Fixed working hours
 - b) Flexibility in choosing projects
 - c) Lack of job security
 - d) Employer-provided benefits
9. Which types of employment are considered non-permanent? (Choose all that apply.)
- a) Full-time
 - b) Part-time

- c) Contract
- d) Temporary

Part 3 Reflection

Task 7: Reflection

10. In your opinion, which type of employment would be most suitable for a student? Why?
Write 2-3 sentences to explain your answer.
