

THANKSGIVING

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH THE MISSING WORDS.

enormous - Parade - dinner - holiday - national - giant - turkeys - November - across together - food - colonists - President - help

Thanksgiving is one of the most important _____ holidays in the United States of America. The festival is always on the 4th Thursday in _____. It's a day when families come _____ to eat a big meal.

Lots of people travel a long distance to be with their families. There are often _____ traffic jams in the days before the festival. Around 50 million people travel home for the _____ and they all do it exactly the same time.

There are also public celebrations _____ the country. New York is famous for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day _____. Macy's is a big department store in the centre of the city. There are thousands of people in the street and also _____ balloons of cartoon characters like Snoopy and Bart Simpson.

Thanksgiving began in 1621. That year, British _____ invited the local Native Americans to a special _____. When they first arrived in America, the British colonists had many problems. It was very difficult to grow _____ in the new country. The Natives taught them how to grow food, and so saved the lives of the colonists. That's why the British arranged a special dinner for them to "give thanks" to them for their _____.

At the first dinner, they ate fish and goose, but not turkey. That tradition started later. Today, people eat 50 million _____ on Thanksgiving Day every year.

Only one turkey is happy that day. The US _____ always "pardons" one turkey every year. Nobody can eat it and the turkey lives the rest of its life in a park.

WORK IN PAIR. ASK YOUR PARTNER AT LEAST 5 QUESTIONS ABOUT THANKSGIVING.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

1 What can you see in the picture?

2 What's going on?

KEY

Thanksgiving is one of the most important national holidays in the United States of America. The festival is always on the 4th Thursday in November. It's a day when families come together to eat a big meal.

Lots of people travel a long distance to be with their families. There are often enormous traffic jams in the days before the festival. Around 50 million people travel home for the holiday and they all do it exactly the same time.

There are also public celebrations across the country. New York is famous for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Macy's is a big department store in the centre of the city. There are thousands of people in the street and also giant balloons of cartoon characters like Snoopy and Bart Simpson.

Thanksgiving began in 1621. That year, British colonists invited the local Native Americans to a special dinner. When they first arrived in America, the British colonists had many problems. It was very difficult to grow food in the new country. The Natives taught them how to grow food, and so saved the lives of the colonists. That's why the British arranged a special dinner for them to "give thanks" to them for their help.

At the first dinner, they ate fish and goose, but not turkey. That tradition started later. Today, people eat 50 million turkeys on Thanksgiving Day every year.

Only one turkey is happy that day. The US President always "pardons" one turkey every year. Nobody can eat it and the turkey lives the rest of its life in a park.