

Choose the sentence that has the correct subject–verb agreement.

1. a) The dogs runs in the backyard.
b) The dogs run in the backyard.
2. a) My friend and her sister goes to the mall on weekends.
b) My friend and her sister go to the mall on weekends.
3. a) Each of the students are responsible for their own work.
b) Each of the students is responsible for their own work.
4. a) The list of items were on the table.
b) The list of items was on the table.
5. a) Neither the teacher nor the students is ready for the presentation.
b) Neither the teacher nor the students are ready for the presentation.
6. a) The team practices every afternoon.
b) The team practice every afternoon.
7. a) The pair of shoes were on sale.
b) The pair of shoes was on sale.
8. a) The boys in the class enjoys the science experiments.
b) The boys in the class enjoy the science experiments.
9. a) One of the books are missing.
b) One of the books is missing.
10. a) Either the cat or the dogs is hungry.
b) Either the cat or the dogs are hungry.

Match the words with correct usage.

Word	Usage
Therefore	Compare and contrast
First	addition
however	Cause and effect
Moreover	sequence
As a result because furthermore next
In the same way
In contrast
moreover	