Choose the best option

If you want something inspiring, you (should definitely try / must avoid) “Winners’ Stories.”

This show is great for teenagers, (especially if / although) they enjoy science.

I wouldn’t recommend that film, (unless / because) the plot is weak and predictable.

You really need to watch this episode, (in case / as) it explains the whole story.

Why don’t we watch it together, (so that / even though) we can discuss it later?
