

History of Music: Introduction

First Name	Grade / Section	Roll No.
	G. 5 / ____

Follow the lesson and answer the questions

- Name four needs for music in human civilization. _____
- What are the earliest known instruments that cavemen made from bones? _____
- In which country was musical notation first used? _____
- During what period did music become more like classical music? _____
- A one-voiced chant that is usually sang without accompaniment. _____
- When was the sol-fa system with easily sung syllables invented? _____
- What were the storytellers, poets and musicians that travelled across Europe called? _____
- This book, written in the 1300's, was a first step towards modern classical music. _____
- Before 1450 words had to fit the music or music had to fit the words? _____
- When was the first pieces of music composed that resembles modern opera? _____

Solve the rebus puzzles of the words found in the lecture

