Fill in the CORRECT TENSE

Present, present perfect, past, past perfect – simple or progressive

Liam's Dream

Liam S. Daydream is a curious and creative boy who loves thinking about what his life could be like. He often ..... (lie) on the grass behind his house and ..... (stare) at the clouds. Sometimes his little sister Mia ..... (join) him, but usually he ..... (prefer) to dream alone.

For years he ..... (have) the same big wish: he ..... (want) to become a famous pilot. He ..... (already / read) many books about airplanes, and he ..... (see) countless videos of daring landings and take-offs. Whenever he ..... (hear) the sound of an engine above his house, he ..... (run) outside and ..... (look) up until the plane ..... (disappear).

Last weekend Liam ..... (get) a special chance. His uncle ..... (take) him there after work. After Liam ..... (go) into the hangar, he ..... (feel) that his biggest dream ..... (come) a little closer. While they ..... (walk) between the parked planes, his uncle ..... (tell) him about the engines . Then he ..... (show) him the cockpit of an old training aircraft. By the time they ..... (leave) the airport in the evening, Liam ..... (choose) a clear goal for himself and he ..... (swear) that he would always work hard to stay close to his dreams.

This is why Liam tries to do well at school. Since last Friday he ..... (study) for next week's maths test and he ..... (already / do) all the exercises the teacher handed out. At the moment he ..... (do) an exercise his uncle prepared for him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS