

READ WITH ME: Jeff is a Good Driver http://resources.marshalladulthoodeducation.org/rs/125/driver_read1.htm

Jeff is a good driver. He wears his seatbelt. All passengers in Jeff's car must wear their seatbelts, too. Jeff stops at all stop signs. He stops at all red lights. He slows down, and prepares to stop when he sees a yellow light.

Jeff is a good driver. He turns on his headlights at dusk. He also turns on his headlights when it is raining or snowing. He turns his headlights to dim when a car is coming toward him and when he is behind a car.

Jeff is a good driver. He has car insurance for his car. He keeps it current by paying the insurance bill when it is due. He renews his license tabs every year and his driver's license every four years.

Jeff is a good driver. Jeff does not speed. He drives the speed limit. He obeys the laws of the road. He is alert when he drives. He stays focused on the road and does not drive when he is tired.
