PART: MULTIPLE CHOICE

Good morning, class! Today we have a new friend joining our A2 English class. Her name is Risa. Risa, please introduce yourself. "Hello everyone. Good morning. My name is Risa Hidayah. I am thirteen years old, and I am in Grade VII. I am originally from Bandung, but my family just moved here last week. I love our new school because it is very green and clean. In my free time, I really enjoy reading fantasy books and playing online puzzle games on my tablet. My favorite activity in the morning is helping my parents water the plants in our small garden. I wake up early, usually at five o'clock, so I have plenty of time before school starts. I think being punctual is very important. I hope we can be good friends." Mr. Bayu smiles. "Thank you, Risa. Kevin, can you show Risa around later? Kevin is known for being very kind and smart, and he knows a lot about our school's Adiwiyata program." "Sure, Mr. Bayu," Kevin replies. "Nice to meet you, Risa. After school, I usually help clean up the recycling area. Would you like to join me today? We finish around three thirty, then we can say goodbye." Risa nods. "That sounds great, Kevin. Thank you."

Question 1

What is Risa's primary purpose when she addresses the class?

- A. To ask Kevin for help with her schoolwork.
- B. To give a detailed report about the Adiwiyata program.

Risa states that she wakes up very early. What routine activity does Risa perform in the morning before school starts?

- A. She plays online puzzle games on her tablet.
- B. She studies English with Mr. Bayu.
- C. She helps her parents water the garden plants.
- D. She cleans up the school's recycling area.

Meet my best friend, Dino. Dino is fourteen years old, which makes him one year older than me. He is quite tall, much taller than most students in our grade, and he has short, curly black hair. Dino is known for having a very calm and patient personality, which is useful when we are playing complex online strategy games together. He spends a lot of time on his computer, but he always remembers to balance his screen time with exercise. Every afternoon, Dino plays basketball for one hour before logging onto his favorite social media platform to chat with friends. He says that reading comments and sharing funny memes is a great way to relax. Dino's favorite online game is called 'Eco-Guardians,' where players protect a digital environment by collecting virtual garbage and planting virtual trees. He thinks this game is fun and also teaches people about Adiwiyata values, even though it's just a game. He always checks his game notifications first thing after dinner. Dino is definitely a tech-savvy and environmentally aware person.

- B. Teaching players about basic cooking routines.
- C. Encouraging environmental protection and awareness.

- D. Developing skills for sharing funny memes online.

PART: COMPLEX CHOICE

Student Life and Green Teams

Hello! My name is Risa. I am 13 years old and I am in the seventh grade. I am tall, and I have short, black hair. I live near the school. Every day, I wake up early at 5:00 AM and help my mother water the plants in our garden. I think gardening is very calming. My school is an Adiwiyata school, so we always try to keep our environment clean. I am also the class representative for the 'Green Team.' My favorite activities are reading science fiction books and playing online strategy games with my friends after school. I usually play 'Eco-Warrior Clash' for about one hour before starting my homework. I think I am a very disciplined and kind person. Meet my friend, Danu. Danu is also 13, but he is shorter than me and has curly hair. Danu is from a town far away, so he rides the bus to school. Danu loves animals and wants to be a veterinarian. His favorite hobby is posting short video clips on social media about recycling tips, especially focusing on plastic waste reduction. He spends a lot of time editing these clips on his tablet. He is very smart, but sometimes he is a bit shy. His morning routine is different; he checks his social media first, then he feeds his two cats before leaving for the bus stop at 6:30 AM. Danu and I often meet during the break to discuss how to make our school greener.

PART: NUMERACY MATCHING

Hello everyone! My name is Maya and I am a student in Grade 7 at Nusantara Junior High School, which is a proud Adiwiyata School. I turned 13 years old last month. I am quite tall and I have long, straight black hair. My personality is generally kind, but I can be very competitive when I play online games. I love playing 'Eco-Adventure,' a game where you manage a virtual garden. I spend about 2 hours playing this game every evening after finishing my homework. Sometimes, I also enjoy reading adventure books, and I usually finish one book every two weeks. My routine is quite structured because I love keeping things tidy, both at home and at school. I wake up exactly at 5:00 AM every weekday. Every Tuesday afternoon, I join the school's 'Green Club.' We work hard to keep the school environment clean. This month, our main task is planting. Each week, the Green Club team plants exactly 5 new seedlings behind the library building. We also focus heavily on recycling. On Fridays, the club members collect plastic waste. Last week, I personally managed to collect 10 empty plastic bottles for the recycling bin. Our goal is to increase the number of recycled items every month to help our planet.

B. The number of plastic bottles Maya collected last week.	2. 13
C. The number of weeks it takes Maya to finish one book.	3. 1
D. The number of days per week the Green Club plants seedlings.	4. 2

PART: TRUE/FALSE

Student Introductions at SMP Harapan Bangsa

Hello! My name is Rian, and I am 13 years old. I am currently in Grade VII at SMP Harapan Bangsa. My school is a certified 'Adiwiyata' school, which means we focus a lot on environmental care and keeping our campus green. Every morning, I wake up at 5:00 AM and help my mother water the plants in our small home garden before preparing for school. When I arrive, I usually greet my teachers by saying, "Good morning, Sir/Madam," as I enter the classroom.

My favorite hobby is playing online games, especially during the weekend when I have more free time. I also enjoy using social media platforms to share pictures of the school's composting and garden projects. I have a best friend named Dina. Dina is very kind and smart. She is short and has long, black hair. Dina's hobby is reading books about nature and sustainable living, which is helpful for our Adiwiyata projects. This week, Rian and Dina are working together to clean up the school's compost area after school finishes at 3:00 PM. We always say, "See you tomorrow!" to our friends before we leave school grounds. I am happy to be part of this green school community.

Instructions: Based on the text above, mark the statements as True (T) or False (F).

Question 17

When Rian and Dina leave school, they use the farewell phrase "See you tomorrow!"

Question 18

Statement	True	False
Dina has short hair and is described as very kind.
SMP Harapan Bangsa is called an 'Adiwiyata' school because it cares about the environment.
Rian uses social media only to post about the online games he plays.
The compost area cleanup activity starts right when Rian wakes up at 5:00 AM.

PART: YES/NO

Meet Arya and Rina: Our Adiwiyata Life

Hello! My name is Arya, and I am 13 years old. I study at SMP Tunas Hijau, an Adiwiyata school. My school is very green and clean. We often plant trees and recycle plastic bottles every Monday. In my free time, I really enjoy playing online games, especially 'AstroQuest.' I usually play after I finish my homework at 4 PM. I also like to read comics. I am tall, and I have short black hair. Today, I want to introduce my best friend, Rina. Rina is also 13, and she is in the same grade as me. She is quite short, and she has beautiful, long brown hair. Rina is very kind and smart. She helps me understand math sometimes. Rina does not play many online games. Her favorite hobby is gardening. She loves flowers and vegetables. Every weekend, she helps her mother maintain their small home garden. Rina dreams of making our school garden even better. We both agree that taking care of the environment is important, but we have different ways to spend our relaxing time—me with my screen and Rina with her plants. We plan to start a clean-up club next month.

Question 19

Based on the text above, mark 'Yes' or 'No' for the following statements about Arya and his routine.

Statement	Yes	No
Arya enjoys playing 'AstroQuest' before he finishes his homework every day.
