V. READING

a. Read the passage about the movie Spider-Man. Match the headings with the paragraphs.

SPIDER-MAN

A There are a lot of famous Marvel movies like Captain America, Iron Man, The Hulk, and Dr. Strange. You shouldn't miss one interesting movie from Marvel. It's Spider-Man!

B Spider-Man is a superhero movie. The main character is a teen superhero called Spider-Man. He has spider-like ability and he fights crime in New York City with the help of an older superhero Iron Man.

C In the movie, Spider-Man wears a red and blue suit at the start, but soon changes into a new high-tech suit. Iron Man made it for him to fight bad people. It protects him and makes him strong. He learns how to use his new equipment and becomes a better hero. However, when he faces a new enemy, The Vulture, he makes mistakes and loses his new suit. Now he must find a way to catch The Vulture using only his power.

D Overall, I think the movie is excellent. It has some very famous actors, and they all perform well. The action scenes are very exciting, and the audience can see the characters superpowers. The story is dramatic, and it attracts the audience's attention.

E This movie is suitable for people who love adventures and superheroes. Although the main character is a teenager, adults can enjoy this movie, too.
