

LIST 8 – VOCABULARY WORKSHEET

Word	Phonetic Pronunciation
Consummation	/kən-sə'mei-fən/
Complacent	/kəm'plei-sənt/
Collateral	/kə'læ-tə-rəl/
Contingent	/kən'tɪn-jənt/
Commiserate	/kəmi-zə-reɪt/
Contrive	/kən'traɪv/
Compulsory	/kəm'pʌl-sə-ri
Contrition	/kən'tri-fən/
Compatible	/kəm'pæ-tə-bəl

EXERCISES

A. Match the word to its correct definition.

- To feel or express sympathy
- Required by law or rules
- Dependent on some preceding occurrence or condition
- A feeling of deep remorse
- Satisfied to the point of not trying harder
- Able to exist or work together
- The final completion of something
- Something pledged as security

C. Use the words in sentences.

- Commiserate _____
- Compatible _____
- Collateral _____
- Consummation _____

D. Choose the correct word.

- When two people work well together, they are (contrition / compatible / complacent).
- Something required by the law is (compulsory / collateral / contingent).
- If something happens only if a condition is met, it is (contrition / compatible / commiserate).