

C1 Listening and writing Test

The Tall Ships Race

- 1 Work with a partner. Look at the photos from a special sailing event and discuss the question.

Would you prefer to be a participant or a spectator in this event? Why?

- 3 Watch the video and choose the best way to complete the sentence.
The Falmouth to Greenwich Tall Ships race is ...
- a a competition for professional sailors.
 - b an opportunity for disadvantaged people to learn through sailing.
 - c a chance to recreate the historical experience of sailing in the past.
- 4 Watch the video again. Match ideas 1-6 to the person a-c who expresses them.
- a race chairman James Stevens
 - b crew member Jack
 - c disabled crew member Helen Leehy
- 1 I didn't use to like boats at all but now I really feel at home on them.
 - 2 Even people who know nothing about boats soon come to realize the importance of teamwork.
 - 3 Care is taken to make every single thing accessible for as many people as possible.
 - 4 It's something the participants will remember for ever.
 - 5 It develops into a really unified group of people.
 - 6 It's given me a lot more self-confidence.