

1 It's very popular with birdwatchers because it's at the mouth of a river / some dunes and there's a lot of wetland / craters that attract birds.

2 There's a very narrow / steep ridge leading up to the main peak and the views are brehtaking / stunning - if you're not too scared to look down!

3 We sometimes gather mushrooms in the woodland near us, but you have to be careful not to stray from / stick to the paths as it's so thick / dense you can easily get lost.

4 It's miles from civilisation, really. You just drive along dirt roads / tracks across these huge flat / rolling plains. And it's all pretty lush / barren - just brown grassland.

5 It's a mecca for climbers because there are these amazing sheer / jagged cliffs on either side of the valley / gorge. I saw quite a few people climbing without ropes. They must be nuts.

6 The road winds along the coastal cliffs and there are these little coves where you can scramble down to sandy / rocky beaches and have a dip. The water's amazing - crystal clear / very murky.
