

Narrative Gap-Fill (Choose the correct word for each blank)

Last Saturday, I visited my friend Emma, who works as a scientist in a small research _____ (1). She told me she was trying to _____ (2) how a new medicine would affect patients, but the results were still unclear. After talking for a while, she showed me a _____ (3) story from the news about a firefighter who saved a family from a burning house. The article described his actions as truly _____ (4).

Later, we went to a café nearby. When we paid, the waiter forgot to give us the _____ (5), so we had to ask for it before leaving. Outside, we heard a group of kids practicing for a big game. Their _____ (6) was encouraging them to stay positive and not give up, even if some of them felt a little _____ (7) after losing the last match. Suddenly, one of the parents started to _____ (8) loudly to motivate the team, and everyone else joined in. It made perfect _____ (9) to support the kids and lift their spirits.