

TIP

The letters a, e, i, o, and u are vowels. If a word or syllable has one vowel and it comes at the beginning or between two consonants, it usually stands for the short-vowel sound. Study these examples.

a in stand e in spent i in sticks o in locked u in judge

LIST WORDS

1. hands
2. dentist
3. lifted
4. crack
5. bumps
6. practice
7. solid
8. clasp
9. sticks
10. spent
11. locked
12. adopt
13. judge
14. contest
15. stand
16. shrimp
17. stamp
18. trust
19. fender
20. pencil

Spelling Practice

Short-Vowel Sounds

Write each list word under the correct short-vowel sound. If a word has two short-vowel sounds, use the two syllables.

a as in band

1. _____ 2. _____
3. _____ 4. _____
5. _____ 6. _____

i as in fit

7. _____ 8. _____
9. _____

u as in pup

10. _____ 11. _____
12. _____

e as in set

13. _____ 14. _____
15. _____ 16. _____

o as in pot

17. _____ 18. _____
19. _____ 20. _____