My dog did an amazing thing today. I was taking it for a walk in the vilage when it stopped suddenly by a a mailbox. It wouldn't move. I looked behind the mailbox and saw a puppy whimpering. The day was so cold I was afraid its fur would turn turn to isicles! I was sertin it was lost. My dog went right up to it and licked its face. A cuple of minutes later we heard a woman call, "Rusty! Where are you?" I told her we had found a puppy that might be her lost Rusty, and it was! She was so happy to see Rusty. She thought it must have gone gone out the garaje door that morning. She was very gateful to us. She offered me a gift. I said that was a jenerous gestur, but I was just happy that I could help.
