From: Brenda

To: Kelly

Subject: Problems with sis

Hello Kelly,

How are you? I miss you so much. I haven't had anyone to talk to about my problems since you left. At the moment I've got a serious problem and need your help.

It's to do with my sister Ellen. Last week I took her camera without asking and I lost it. I haven't told her yet, but she's going to find out soon. You see, she's going to Egypt next week and she's going to need it. What should I do? If I tell her, she'll get really angry. And you know how Ellen is when she's upset. She'll never let me borrow any of her things again. Unfortunately, there's more. Next weekend, there's a great party and I don't want to miss it. The problem is I haven't got anything cool to wear. So, I was thinking of borrowing something from Ellen. But if she finds out about the camera, I can forget it. What do you suggest I do? If I had the money, I would buy her a new camera, but I don't. What would you do if you were me?

Write back as soon as possible.

Yours,
Brenda

WRITING

Imagine that you have received the e-mail below from a friend. Read your friend's e-mail and the notes you have made and write a reply using all your notes.

I've got some great news. My school is organising a sports day in the town stadium to raise money for charity. It's going to take place in two months and I'm one of the many volunteers helping out.

However, we're not really sure which sports to have. You see, lots of people of all age groups are going to attend. Any ideas?

Fantastic!
