

Showing Possession

1. Add an apostrophe, where needed, to show possession and rewrite the sentences on the lines below.

1. The dragons cave was terrifying.

2. Peoples footsteps were heard approaching.

3. The butterflys wings flapped as it flew from flower to flower.

4. The dancers costumes were very colourful and bright.

5. The dogs tail wagged excitedly as he walked.

6. The clowns gloves were large and spotty.

7. The reindeers bells gently rang as he walked through the snow.

2. Look at the table below. Each box contains an apostrophe to show possession. You must decide if the possession in each case is by a singular or plural noun. Colour in each box according to the key.

The Queen's tarts	monsters' fur	dog's paws	wolves' howls
fairies' wings	pigs' trotters	birds' nests	passengers' suitcases
mum's bag	babies' milk bottles	Andrew's shirt	witch's broomsticks
geese's wings	the kings' jewels	girl's slippers	teacher's notebook
children's work	horse's hooves	footballers' shoes	cat's claws
Ronda's mask	lion's mane	elephants' tusks	dog's kennel

Key

Singular Possessive Apostrophe: Blue

Plural Possessive
Apostrophe: Green