

Pakistan International School, Jeddah
Cambridge Curriculum Section (CCS)

Islamic Studies worksheet

TIME TO READ AND RECALL THE STORY

One day Allah's Messenger (S.A.W) was alone in the Muslim camp close to the battleground.

He lay down to rest in the shade of a tree and fell asleep.

A man from the enemy's camp came along by chance. Seeing the Prophet (S.A.W) asleep and alone, he quietly removed the Prophet's sword from its cover and raised it over him. Just then the Prophet (S.A.W) woke up. The man asked, "O Muhammad! Who will save you from me know."

The Prophet (S.A.W) calmly replied, "Allah!"

Hearing the Prophet's reply, the man trembled with fear, and the sword fell down from his hand. The Prophet (S.A.W) picked up the sword and asked the man, "Now who will save you from me?"

The man had no answer. The Prophet (S.A.W) let the man go.

❖ Read the statement carefully then type True or False.

 A simple act of kindness can stop a million tears.

 Prophet Muhammad laid down to rest under the shade of a house.

 Hearing the Prophet's reply, the man trembled with fear.

 The man who took the Prophet's sword was from his own camp.

 This all happened at Muslims camp close to the masjid.

 Prophet (S.A.W) said, "Allah is kind and likes kindness in all things."

 People would be unhappy if we help them.

❖ Answer the following questions.

Q1. Where was the Prophet (S.A.W) resting?

Q2. Who was the man who attacked the prophet?

Q3. What was the reply of the Prophet (S.A.W) when the man asked him, “Who will save you now?”

Q4. Why Prophet Muhammad let the man go?

Q5. What have you learnt from this story about Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W)?