Dear Diary,

This was the best day of my school holidays. We [] at a large hotel near the sea in Egypt with another family. The two dads said they wanted to see the country. The mums were very lazy and decided to lie in the sun by the [] at the hotel and Emma [] with them. So the two dads, and all the children, including me went off to explore. We left on a [] very early and started our journey into the desert. We [] at the pyramids at midday. It was hot and sunny and the air was very warm. We went on a tour inside the great pyramid. We had to climb lots of [] in the dark. I thought it was very exciting!

Near the pyramids we [] a very friendly man who chatted to us. He had eight camels so we all went on a camel ride. I was a bit frightened and held onto its [] so I didn't fall. Then, my camel wouldn't move! The man [] it and pushed it and then it started to walk, very slowly. George [] his camel very fast when suddenly he fell off. The man helped George but George couldn't stand because his foot []. George []. His foot was very sore, so Dad had to carry him back to the bus.

After the camel ride we were hungry so we went to a [] and we [] a delicious meal there. The [] was kind and [] us lots of Egyptian food. Harry ate so many [] there! Then it was time to go back. Harry felt really ill on the journey home and when we got back to the hotel he went straight to []! I didn't! Mum took Emma and I to see some Egyptian dancers. That was a great surprise!
