

LISTENING ACTIVITY

Match the individual to their correct occupation description.

PART A

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 1. Toria       | A. Delivers babies and cares for mothers before and after birth |
| 2. Jonathan    | B. Performs global movement and story-based performances        |
| 3. Laura       | C. Responds to fires and rescues people and animals             |
| 4. Christopher | D. Checks buses daily and is responsible for passenger safety   |
| 5. Chantal     | E. Ensures radiation safety and contamination control           |

Choose the best answer of the questions according to the audio.

1. What is the main point the firefighter makes about her team?
A. Everyone must be the same height to work effectively.
B. Each team member contributes differently, but together they succeed.
C. Firefighting is mostly an individual job.
D. The team only focuses on rescuing animals.
2. What special aspect of the midwife's job is emphasized?
A. The physical strength needed for the role.
B. The paperwork involved in each delivery.
C. Being part of the creation of a family.
D. Working mostly behind the scenes.
3. The health physicist mentions "a stereotypical image." What does this refer to?
A. The idea that nuclear jobs are easy.
B. The belief that only men work in nuclear industries.
C. The belief that only women can work with radiation.
D. That people must look a certain way to work in science.
4. The performer feels like a minority because:
A. The performing arts have very few dancers.
B. Movement-based performance is only for professionals.
C. It is commonly assumed that women are the dancers.
D. Men prefer not to perform on stage.
5. What reaction does the firefighter often receive when people learn about her job?
A. They doubt she is strong enough.
B. They express excitement and curiosity.
C. They warn her about the dangers.
D. They advise her to switch careers.