

The Frog and The Mouse

Listening Comprehension

Task 1: Fill in the blanks with words you hear.

visited	house	thought	frog	swim	mouse	ate	friends	played	hawk	water
beak eat away life

Once upon a time, there lived a _____ and a _____. They were very good _____. Every day, the frog _____ the mouse. They _____ together, _____, and talked happily.

One day, the frog said, "Come to my _____." The mouse replied, "But I can't _____." The frog smiled and said, "Don't worry. Sit on my back. I'll take you safely across the water."

But soon a bad _____ came into his mind. "I will _____ the mouse." So the frog dived deep into the _____. The mouse got scared and shouted, "Help!"

Just then, a _____ flying in the sky saw the mouse and quickly came down. The hawk caught the mouse with its _____, but the frog was tied to the mouse. The hawk carried both of them _____.

The frog was very sad. He lost his friend and also lost his own _____ because of his bad idea.

Task 2: True or False (T/F)

1. The frog and the mouse were very good friends. T F
2. The frog visited the mouse once a week. T F
3. The mouse replied, "Yes, I can swim easily!" T F
4. The frog told the mouse to sit on his back to cross the water. T F
5. The frog had a bad thought to eat the mouse. T F
6. The hawk only caught the mouse and left the frog in the water. T F

Task 3: Listen again and circle the correct letter (a, b, or c) for each question.

1. What did the frog and the mouse do together every day?
 - a) They swam, jumped, and talked.
 - b) They ate, played, and talked happily.
 - c) They slept and watched the sky.
2. Where did the frog invite the mouse to go?
 - a) To his friend's house.
 - b) To the river bank.
 - c) To his house.
3. When the frog started swimming, what "bad thought" came into his mind?
 - a) "I will eat the mouse."
 - b) "I will help the mouse safely."
 - c) "I will shout for help."
4. When the frog dived deep, what did the mouse do?
 - a) He swam away quickly.
 - b) He shouted, "Help! Help!"
 - c) He started laughing.
5. Who saw the mouse and quickly came down from the sky?
 - a) A small bird.
 - b) A hawk.
 - c) A butterfly.
6. What was the moral of this story?
 - a) Always visit your friends.
 - b) Always be kind to fish.
 - c) If you try to harm others, you may harm yourself too.

