

 Verb Matching Game

0/6

Drag and drop verbs to match with their past tense forms

Present TensePast Tense (Drag Here)

Write

Buy

Eat

Go

Take

See

Drag from here:

went

ate

wrote

took

saw

bought

Sentence Builder

0/3

Click words in order to build correct past tense sentences

1. Build this sentence:

 Her Visited She yesterday grandmother

2. Build this sentence:

played

they

footbal

the

park

in

3. Build this sentence:

a movie

I

watched

night

last

Not CompleteStory Sequencer

Arrange paragraphs in order and identify their structure

Story: A Memorable Holiday

Drag to reorder the paragraphs and select the structure for each:

Finally, we returned home with wonderful memories. It was the best holiday I ever had. I hope I can visit the beach again soon.

Structure:

Select...

On the first day, we swam in the clear blue water and built sandcastles. The next day, we went snorkeling and saw beautiful coral reefs and colorful fish. We also tried delicious seafood at a local restaurant.

Structure:

Select...

Last month, my family and I went to Bali for a holiday. We stayed at a beautiful hotel near the beach. The weather was perfect and sunny.

Structure: Select... ▼

Inference Detective

0/5

Find hidden meanings and implicit information in the text

Read the text carefully:

Sarah woke up and looked outside. The ground was completely white, and icicles hung from the roof. She quickly put on her warmest jacket, thick gloves, and a woolen scarf before heading out. Children were building snowmen in the park, and she could see her breath in the air.

At school, her friend Tom was shivering. "I forgot my coat at home," he said quietly, rubbing his arms. Sarah noticed his lips looked slightly blue. Without hesitation, she shared her extra scarf with him. Tom's face lit up with a grateful smile.

1. What season is it in the story?

💡 Clue: Look for weather descriptions

Summer

Winter

Spring

2. How did Sarah show kindness?

💡 Clue: What action did Sarah take?

She gave Tom her coat

She shared her extra scarf with Tom

She gave Tom her gloves

3. What can we infer about Tom's condition?

💡 Clue: Look for physical symptoms described

Tom was feeling too hot

Tom was very cold and uncomfortable

Tom was just tired

4. What kind of person is Sarah?

💡 Clue: Think about her actions and preparation

Selfish and uncaring

Prepared, thoughtful, and caring

Lazy and disorganized

5. Why did Tom's face "light up"?

💡 Clue: What does "light up" mean as an expression?

- He became angry
- He became happy and relieved
- He became confused

Read the Narrative Story:

The Greedy Dog

Once upon a time, there was a hungry dog. He had been searching for food all day. Finally, he found a big piece of meat near a butcher's shop. He was very happy and quickly grabbed it with his mouth.

On his way home, the dog had to cross a bridge over a river. As he walked across the bridge, he looked down into the water. He saw his own reflection, but he thought it was another dog with a piece of meat! The meat in the reflection looked bigger than his own. The greedy dog wanted both pieces of meat. He opened his mouth wide to bark at the other dog and grab that meat too.

But when he opened his mouth, his own piece of meat fell into the river and sank to the bottom. The dog realized his mistake too late. He had lost his meat because of his greed. He went home hungry and sad, with nothing to eat.

1. What is the dog's main character attitude?

💡 Think about how the dog behaves when he sees his reflection

- Generous and kind - willing to share
- Greedy and selfish - always wants more
- Patient and careful - thinks before acting
- Honest and trustworthy

2. What is the main complication (problem) in the story?

💡 What causes the conflict or trouble?

- The dog was very hungry and couldn't find food
- The dog saw his reflection and thought it was another dog with more meat
- The bridge was too difficult to cross
- The butcher was chasing the dog

 3. How was the problem resolved (solved)? What happened at the end?

- The dog successfully got both pieces of meat
- The dog lost his meat when he opened his mouth and it fell into the river
- The dog shared the meat with the other dog
- The dog found more meat at home

 4. What is the moral message (lesson) of this story? What important lesson does the story teach us?

- Always exercise and stay healthy
- Greed can make you lose what you already have; be grateful and content
- Learn to swim before crossing rivers
- Always travel alone for safety