

Read the text and do the following activities:

This term, a group of students from Italy is visiting our school for the Erasmus programme.

On their first morning, they meet the headteacher and the Erasmus teachers, who welcome them to the project. The Italian students feel excited and start talking about their school in Italy because they want to share what their school life is like.

Their school is quite big, and they are proud of it. It is an old building, but it is very well organised.

On the ground floor, they have the reception, the school office, the canteen, the gym, and the headteacher's office, which is next to the library.

On the first floor, they have the classrooms, the music room, and long corridors with posters and projects made by the students. They don't have a CLIL room in their school, so they do all their projects inside their usual classrooms.

Outside, they have a small garden, a playground, and a large athletics track where they run, train, and sometimes have small competitions. Many students love sports, so this part of the school is very popular during break time and P.E. lessons.

The Italian students are surprised because our school is very sustainable. They don't have solar panels or bike parking in their school, and they find it very cool to see the sustainable ideas in other European schools.

They have English, Maths, P.E., Arts, and some other subjects like us, but they don't have Emotional and Creative Education or French. They say their lessons are fun but sometimes very traditional, so they enjoy discovering new ways of learning during the Erasmus programme.

At the end of the week, they feel happy and grateful because they can share information about their school and learn about other European schools too. They return to Italy with new friends, new ideas, and a great experience to remember.
