عمل الطالبة : بشرى ثامر المطيري
الصف : ١/٣

Present Perfect (For / Since)

Which sentence uses for correctly?

A. I've lived here for 2019.
B. I've lived here for five years.
C. I've lived here for last week.
D. I've lived here for yesterday

Which sentence is NOT logically correct?

A. She has studied French since 2020.
B. She has studied French for three years
C. She has studied French since two years
D. She has studied French for a long time

Why is this sentence wrong: "We've worked since two months"?

A. Because "since" can only be used with numbers.
B. Because "since" must be followed by a point in time
C. Because "for" and "since" mean the same thing
D. Because "since" can't be used with work verbs

Which option changes this sentence to make it correct? "I've known her for 2018".

A. I've known her since 2018.
B. I've known her for since 2018
C. I've known her since for 2018
D. I've known her for 2018 years

Which pair of sentences BOTH make sense?

A. I've played piano for last year. / I've played piano since two months.
B. I've played piano for a long time. / I've played piano since I was ten
C. I've played piano since a long time. / I've played piano for 2010
D. I've played piano since three weeks. / I've played piano for 1999

Which option BEST completes the sentence? "She has improved a lot _____ she started practicing every day".

A. for
B. since
C. in
D. from

True / False – Present Perfect (For / Since)

I've lived here since five years. True / False

She has worked at the hospital for a long time. True / False

We've known each other since 2019. True / False

He has studied English for last month. True / False

They've had this car since last summer. True / False

I've played tennis for two hours. True / False

She has been sick since three days. True / False

I've had this bag since my birthday. True / False