

PRESENT CONTINUOUS VS. PRESENT SIMPLE

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs.

- The teacher (read) a book right now.
- They (play) in the garden together.
- you (listen) to music?
- The cat (sleep) on the couch.
- I..... (not eat) my breakfast.
- Mary and I (watch) a film at the moment.
- he (paint) a picture now?
- He (not cook) dinner right now.
- Helen (dance) in the living room?
- We (not wear) our jackets.

2. Choose the correct tense to time expressions:

- Always → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- Now → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- At the moment → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- Often → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- Usually → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- Look! → Present Simple / Present Continuous

- Listen! → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- Once a week → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- This morning → Present Simple / Present Continuous
- On Sundays → Present Simple / Present Continuous

3. Choose the correct form:

- She eats / is eating a pizza right now.
- My sister plays / is playing chess on Mondays.
- My father has / is having a shower at the moment.
- I usually read / am reading books.
- I study / am studying English twice a week.
- Listen! Peter sings / is singing a song.
- At the moment, we run/are running in the park.
- You wear / are wearing a coat today.
- They often listen / are listening to music.
- Laura never does / is doing her homework.